Mayor Says New Daly City Civic Center Site By Next Year

Mayor Joseph Verducci promised this week the city would be buying or on the verge of buying a site for a new Civic Center in Daly City sometime next year.

The civic center, he said, would not require a bond issue and would be built on a pay as you go basis.

He said some of the financing for the new building could possibly come from county, state and federal sources.

The building will be used to house city employees and also serve as a city-county, state-federal office building, Verducci added.

"We'll explore funds possibilities from all entities" he said.

"The community has outgrown its present city hall facilities at 75 Wellington," Verducci added.

"We need a new building, needed one for a long time."

"The water department is now located elsewhere, engineering is next to recreation; police facilities are antiquated and the jail is a disgrace."

Verducci said that by taking a look at Daly City's assessed valuation, tax structure and bonded indebtedness, one could find a good picture of how well the city is operating.

"We're in tremendous shape —assessed valuation is not high, tax rate is lower, bonded indebtedness is lower yet than many other communities."

Jeff High Literary Magazine Criticized

Jefferson high school's highly regarded literary magazine "Touch Stones II" cam eunder fire from several distraught citizens at Monday eve's board meeting.

The literary periodical, which contains creative work in photography, art, poetry and prose by Jefferson high school students, was criticized for being offensive to religion.

William Brown, 511 C street, Colma opened up the attack on the magazine when he asked who was on the board which governed the material published in the magazine. Another Colma resident, Gerald Christiano, asked if "this is what is taught in classrooms?"

Discriminatory

Brown's wife, Mrs. William Brown, was next to file complaint. She acknowledged that there were some very fine materials contained in the magazine, however, she thought that one of the poems was discriminatory against religion.

John Mongon, principal of Jefferson, said that the book wsa financed entirely by the student body and that he was solely responsible for approving its publication.

When asked by Mrs. Brown if he had realized that there would be criticism of the magazine, he replied:

"I was fully aware that maybe somebody would disagree. I think in any artistic endeavor there is going to be pro and con. I don't set myself up as an authority, but must depend upon other authorities and this I have done," Mongon replied.

Favorable Reviews

He explained that Jefferson English teacher Ken Brown had handled the poetry in the book and that the book had received very favorable reviews from famed poet Kenneth Rexroth and the internationally known San Francisco State Poetry Centre.

Mrs. Brown then singled out the poem, which dealt with conception, as being "an absolute insult to the Lord."

Mrs. Brown said that the poem insinuated that the immaculate conception was a falacy.

The English instructor said that the poem "merely asked a question and that to ask a question is always in good taste. I am a Christian and it is not against my belief," Ken Brown concluded.

Brown Backed Up

Superintendent Edward Morgan backed up the English instructor.

"I think we could say the same for any great work of literature," Morgan began. "I assure you that we honestly attempt not to offend. We know we serve many publics and what may be offensive to one is not to the other," he added.

"If we remove certain things which could possibly be offensive then this would not represent the work of the young people. I know that if this is the position, then the district and myself are left open to far more criticism," Morgan replied.

Construction Idle

"It is far easier for the school to publish "Mary Had A Little Lamb,' than some true artistic feeling of a young person, however, this is not our objective," Morgan concluded.

Trustee James Cooper assured the audience that the matter would be looked into for the coming year.

In other business Morgan reported that the Jefferson high project is on its fourth week of non-activity due to the construction strike.

Limited Work

Unlike the Jefferson project, the Westmoor building project is proceeding on a limited basis and the contractor is sure that the 16 additional classrooms will be ready for use by September 1.

In final action, the board viewed swimming pool sketches for Westmoor high school. A meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday at the district office for the possibility of raising funds to finance the pool.

As long as the district remains under the state program,

Assessment District Protests Are Heard

The Daly City-San Mateo county agreement to begin a $300,000 assessment district in the oft-flooded area west of the Broadmoor Shopping Center met considerable opposition during a hearing Monday night, June 11 at the city council chambers

William Lagomarsino, owner of property in the area, said that a few people in the center of this district would be footing the bill for water drainage.

Plans are to install a 60-inch storm sewer underground, eventually fill the creek and regrade the lots in the creek area. Future plans are for a multi-residential area. Property owners are to share the burden of the bonded indebtedness.

"We object to the streets," Lagomarsino said. "The 75 vacant lots do not go all the way to Broadmoor. We also feel 87th street is one of the major streets and nothing is provided for it."

Lagomarsino said he also objected to paying for more sewers since he had paid for smaller sewers in the past.

"We are not objecting to the improvements," he said. He urged the city to get the county to participate in financing to make distribution of costs more equitable.

B. Shepley, 384 92nd street, Colma, wearing an Indian styled headband across his long flowing hair, said his objections were not to the improvements, but the way the city goes about assessing.

"Since Daly City is assessing outside its boundaries," he said, "they are in effect, making second class citizens, creating distinctions and breeding inferiority.

"Thus we have a new taxation," he stated..."assessment without representation."

"If this is the way we are going to be taxed...it is a fraud, a holdup.

"In short," he said, after some length, "all the improvements you have proposed for my property, will not improve my property one bit."

Assessment district engineer Edmund Smith stated that the assessment would not be acceptable to the majority of the owners if outside district property owners are taxed and do

205 To Graduate At Westmoor High

Two hundred and five Westmoor high school seniors will have earned the title of "men and women" Thursday night, June 14, at the graduation ceremonies.

Offering the invocation will be the Rev. Lynn Hodges of the Westlake Community Baptist church. The school's motto, "Today the Classroom—Tomorrow the World," will be discussed by the class speaker, Brandt Larsen, followed by "Cinerama March," played by the Westmoor high school band under the direction of Howard Loeffler.

Honored at ceremonies will be Jo-Carole Sikorski, class valedictorian, and salutatorian Richard Hunter, to be followed by presentation of the class by Principal Glenn South.

The Rev. Timothy J. Monahan of Our Lady of Mercy church will give the benediction after the awarding of the diplomas by Dr. Jerry C. Miles, school trustee.

Grand Jury Dismisses Arson Case

The plight of Daly City's four arson-charged firemen took a turn for the better Monday night when the San Mateo County Grand Jury refused to vote indictments against them.

Robert Malcom, James Dresser, George Bullwinkel and Harvey Cross, who were accused of setting fire to a warehouse two months ago in Daly City, were interrogated but no indictment was returned.

District Attorney Keith Sorenson had asked for the men to be indicted on conspiracy to commit arson charges.

Christen Annexation Now A "Dead Issue"

The proposed annexation of more than 1,000 acres of uninhabited grazing land south of the city's boundaries is now "a pretty dead issue," according to Mayor Joseph Verducci of Daly City.

"At present, our feeling is that Mr. Christen or his partners could add impetus to this thing. But unless that happens, we will sit tight."

Verducci said the city did not annext the land last year because a land use development plan was not presented by the land owners."

"In order for the public to accept the idea and the image of annexation, a lot of good public relations work would have to be done. This would have to be done by the owners."

"Since the Callan annexation issue, we have broken up an image that all big annexations are not good for the city . . that needn't be so.

"It was felt that this popular image had to be changed in order for the council to undertake this thing."

It's News To Vets

Q—I have read that GI loans have ended for World War II veterans.

A—The entitlement of many World War II veterans for GI loan benefits will expire July 25, 1962. They still have, by law, until July 25, 1962, to make loan applications. Expiration of entitlement of additional World War II veterans will occur each day thereafter until July 25, 1967, when the entitlement of World War II veterans having maximum elgibility will terminate. The duration of each World War II veteran's entitlement is determined by application of a "phase-out" formula contained in the governing law. Under the formula, each veteran of World War II has ten years of entitlement from the date of discharge from his last period of active wartime duty, plus one additional year for each three months of actvie wartime military duty. Veterans should note that "loan application" means the actual application by the lending agency to the VA for guaranty and not the veteran's request for a loan.

Q—Are there any VA educational benefits for children whose veteran-parent is still alive?

A—No. The VA's educational benefits for children are based on the fact that the veteran-parent is dead and thus unable to provide the child's education.

Q—Can young people entering the service today take out GI insurance?

A—GI insurance is no longer being issued.

Q—When can I expect my GI insurance dividend during 1962?

A—The GI insurance dividends are being paid as near the anniversary date of the policy—the date it was first issued—as possible.

Q—Can anyone enter the VA Hospitalized Veterans Writing Contest?

A—No, the contest is limited to war veterans who are actually hospitalized at the time their entry is written.

Q—Are all veterans with wartime service entitled to domiciliary care?

Vista Mar School

The kindergarten classes of Mrs. Helen Boyle and Miss Mary Wade went visiting the first-graders in Mrs. Paula Shepard's and Mrs. Marcha Zusman's first-grade rooms. While visiting in Rooms 6 and 8, the kindergarten classes were able to observe the first-grade boys and girls working at their desks having an arithmetic and language arts lesson.

One of the prime reasons for the visitations of the kindergarten classes was to orient the future first-graders as to room environment as well as a mere formalized type of pupil station at desks.

As a sequel to this visitation, kindergartens for the second round actually went in the first-grade room to have a lesson relative to the program of reading readiness which the kindergarteners have been experiencing during the past school year.

Olympia School

Mrs. Mattson's third grade from Olympia school went to the Leland Stanford Junior Museum When they got there, they separated into groups. Some of the children's mothers were there to help, Mrs. Bussenius, Mrs. Milani and Mrs. Blackfield. In the museum, they saw pictures of famous sculptures. Thee walls were made of marble. We went upstairs and saw the Indian exhibits.

The room was full of things from all different tribes. After that, we moved on to the next room to the California Indian things. We saw some of the biggest baskets in the world to the smallest. Then we went to the Pulgas water temple. The water was rushing so fast that if anyone fell in they would be killed right away. Some people were unable to see it but they could hear it. We ate lunch and then started back home. Now our trip ends, but we enjoyed going to Palo Alto.

PAMELA, COLMAN,
Third Grade.

Mrs. Mattson's third grade class took a field trip to the Leland Stanford Junior Museum in Palo Alto on May 28. First we went to the Indian exhibit. As we went through I saw some weapons that the Indians used. Then I saw some woven blankets. As we went on we saw the skeleton of a San Mateo Indian. Then we saw some pictures of Leland Stanford and his wife and their son, Leland Stanford, Jr., for whom the museum was named. Then we went to the engine room and saw the gold spike. We went to the Pulgas water temple and ate lunch. Then we went back to school.

DAVID GLASS,

Thomas Edison School

An upper grade assembly program at Thomas Edison combined a concert by the fifth and sixth grade glee club with presentation of awards for special scholarship and service to the school.

Under the direction of Mrs. Hackett, the glee club offered 12 selections with two-part harmony and special instrumental accompaniment. Glee club narrators were Kathleen Kuhlmann, Kenny Walker, Edwin Vanucci, Penelope Fairbourne, Jean Amaroli, Linda Sanford, Walter Orozco, Vivian Goldman and Billie Joy Wilson.

Following the concert, Mr. Aronson presented Betty Shively of Miss Johnson's fifth grade class with a citation awarded by the California Federation of Charparral Poets' convention. Betty's poem was selected for display at the children's poetry fair in Long Beach and bore a gold seal inscribed with "Poet First Class."

Mr. Jonas, faculty advisor for the Thomas Edison safety patrol, then read the names of students who had served on this patrol during the year.

He stated that the patrol had been on duty at eight different stations at eight different times during the school day. He expressed appreciation to those boys and girls who stood by their posts in the rain and in cold, foggy weather, often missing class time which necessitated make-up work.

Active members given certificates by Mr. Jonas and Patrolman Johnson of the Daly City police department were: Michael Boss, captain; Victor Yerby, captain; Carroll Downing, lieutenant; Jody LaRocca, lieutenant; Elizabeth Sanchez, lietutenant; Daryl Shamitoff, lieutenant; JoAnne Fitzsimmons, sergeant; Peter Miller, sergeant; Judy Bearch, Maureen Blomberg, Nancy Brachmann, David Burdick, Linda Currier, Mary Currier, Peggy Dalton, Kenneth Duart, Paul Franke, Patrick Harer, Pamela Harter, Thomas Heckman, Debbie Jose, Rebecca Karres, Peter Lommori, Carol Mantelli, JoAnne McGovern, James McGuffick, Evelyn Meneken, Jack Maynihan, Christine Miceli, Steve Noffsinger, Claudia Orozco, Stephanie Petillo, Diane Pigott, Paul Salinger, Miriam Sholin, Sharon Soares, Russ Somdahl, Ronald Sparling, Karen Spence, Ronald Stettler, Gene Taylor, Lynn Tressler, Sandy Tucker, Janice Hickey, Gary Soules and Wirt Lewis.

A Knockout Blow To Polio!

This fall, in the largest mass vaccination program in the history of the West, 3,500,000 Bay Area residents will have an opportunity to wipe out the threat of polio to their lives.

Thousands of volunteer physicians will be available to administer the thoroughly tested Sabin Oral Vaccine to residents of six counties on September 23, November 4 and December 9. Announcement of the vaccination Sundays was made June 11 by the Bay Area Medical Association committee, representing physicians of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clara county medical societies.

Each of the three scheduled vaccination Sundays will immunize against one of the three types of paralytic polio. A nominal charge of 25 cents for each of the three doses will be made; for those who cannot afford the payment, there will be no charge. Sabin vaccine, which is taken by mouth and is sweet tasting, will be offered to babies from three months of age on up to the communities' eldest citizens.

Preliminary plans for the mass program were announced Monday at a briefing session in San Francisco by representatives of the Bay Area Medical Association committee. Meeting the press were Dr. Edward B. Shaw, Dr. Howard W. Lindsey, Dr. James C. Malcolm. Other members of the committee are Deane T. Adams, M.D., of Santa Clara County Medical Society; Eugene P. Shatkin, M.D., Marin Medical Society, and Harold Kay, M.D., of Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association. Dr. Shaw, chairman of the committee, represents the San Francisco Medical Society. Dr. Lindsey, who is vice chairman, is from the San Mateo County Medical Society. Dr. Malcolm represents the officers of the Bay Area county health departments.

Cooperating with the medical committee will be local steering committees in each community, seeking the aid of civic clubs, PTA's, Boy Scouts, school administrators. An estimated 78,000 volunteers will be needed, including physicians, pharmacists, nurses, medical assistants, members of hospital auxiliaries, all groups and individuals interested in destroying the threat of polio.

Three thousand to 4,000 conveniently located clinic sites through the six counties will be set up to administer the Sabin vaccine, which has been fully approved by both the United States and the California State Health Departments.

Those who are taking Salk vaccine injections during the summer should continue to do so as it gives important protection during the period polio most often strikes. The people who have completed their Salk innoculations are also urged to take the Sabin series. The Sabin immunization will provide added protection, and also make it impossible for one to carry the disease and thus endanger others.

San Francisco Pays Its Taxes

The City and County of San Francisco paid property taxes totaling $656,792.79 to San Mateo county during the fiscal year 1961-62, an increase of $6,317.20 over the amount paid during the preceding fiscal year, according to a report released in San Francisco by Harry D. Ross, city controller.

San Francisco pays taxes on its airport, the Crystal Springs lakes, watersheds and aqueduct rights-of-way, Hassler Health Farm, Log Cabin Ranch, prison farm and Sharp Park golf course Pacifica.

San Mateo County cities to which San Francisco paid $7,499.60 in taxes on city-owned properties within their boundaries were:

Burlingame, $3,941.30; Daly City, $295.98; Redwood City, $1,055.79; San Carlos, $280.23, and San Mateo, $1,926.30. Taxes due Hillsborough, Millbrae and South San Francisco on city-owned properties within their boundaries were paid to San Mateo county.

Tuolumne county received the second largest tax payment, $592,030.07. The tax paid Mariposa county, $3.06, was the smallest.

Rulings On Tape Recordings

A tape recording of a city council meeting does not constitute a public record, but nevertheless, citizens have the right of inspection of such recording under the Government Code, according to a ruling by Attorney General Stanley Mosk.

A city clerk of a general law city, under the Government Code, is required to keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the legislative body "in books" with a comprehensive index in the books (Section 40801).

"On the other hand, a tape recording is not a record which the clerk is specifically required to keep," states the opinion. "The clerk is required to keep a written record. Nor is the keeping of a tape recording necessary or convenient to the discharge of the clerk's duty to keep a written record."

The tape recording may be useful in preparing the written record, but it is not necessary or convenient once the written record is prepared and properly maintained, says the ruling.

However, tape recordings of council meetings are "other matters" under Section 1227 of the Government Code to which citizens have a right of access. "The clerk is under no duty to retain these tape recordings for any particular period of time for reference thereto by citizens; he must only make a recording available when he has retained it after use thereof in preparation of the written minutes," states the opinion.

Request for the opinion was made by Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie of Contra Costa county in behalf of the city of Pinole. The ruling was prepared by Assistant Attorney General Charles A. Barrett of Sacramento.

COUNTY DOINGS

by JACK WOOD

There was heavy early balloting and some confusion over the first county-wide use of voting machines during primary elections on the Peninsula June 5.

Confusion centered around the use of the new voting machines in their first county-wide test. Some voters were baffled when they entered the booths to find that both the Republican and Democratic slates were before them in contrast to the printed ballot.

A few voters screamed they were locked in booths and the machines were jammed.

In Pacifica the situation was reported chaotic in at least three precincts during the first 45 minutes the polls were open. Several machines were inoperative. Daly City police reported three complaints from voters.

William A. Schmicht, director of the evening adult school at South San Francisco High School for the past three years, has been granted a year's leave of absence by trustees of the unified school district to take an administrative post with the Peace Corps in Ethiopia.

An agreement for an engineering study by Theodore V. Tronoff of the $200,000 White street extension to link Broadmoor and Westlake was approved by the county board of supervisors.

The board acknowledged receipt of 17 letters on the subject, 13 objecting to it and four favoring the project.

The board of supervisors, June 11, appointed Dallas Radcliff of Sacramento as civil defense coordinator for San Mateo County.

Radcliff, a former member of the California disaster office, will work under county director James Fitzgerald in formulating the county disaster plan.

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

President watching has become a new game in the United States. Nearly every publisher has a book about the presidents. Nearly every periodical has explored the lives of the Kennedys and their predecessors. Nearly every radio station and TV broadcaster has presented a show about Lincoln or Jefferson or Franklin Pierce.

By far the most informative book about the men who have been president is Joseph Kanes' Facts About the Presidents. This book tells everything about every president. Who his parents were, what he ate for dinner, how he voted, what happened to his children, who were his ancestors, etc. Due to some light-fingered person who cares little for his fellow citizens, the book is not now in the Daly City public library. Since it is a good book, let us hope that the thief enjoys it.

One fascinating volume is "The Health of the Presidents" by Rudolph Marx, M. D. This is an account of the physical and mental health of the presidents from Washington F.D.R. It shows how health influenced each man and reveals some obscure facts about his personal life.

Then there is John Ashley Wells' "The Voters' Presidential Handbook," which is a most useful volume. Among others that may be found in the public library are Edwin S. Corwin's "The President Today," Victoria Nesbitt's "The Presidential Cookbook" (a sort of do it yourself book of recipes for dishes that pleases presidential tastes); Lurin L. Henry's "Presidential Transitions," Charles Beard's "Presidents in American History," and, finally, Auburn S. Cunningham's "Everything You Want to Know About the Presidents." Added to these are numerous memoirs by White House servants, ushers, guards, and gardeners.

FIRE FACTS

This article is written by Daly City Firemen and published in this paper for the purpose of keeping the public informed about their Fire Department, its duties and associated activities.

Last week we brought out certain rules parents should follow when employing baby sitters. This week we would like to point out the baby sitter's responsibility, again quoting verbatim from a pamphlet we received from another fire department:

"THE BABY-SITTER'S RESPONSIBILITY WHEN IN YOUR HOME"

The baby-sitter who is willing to come into your home and accept the responsibility of the lives of your children and the safety of your home should certainly have the following qualifications:

1.—A baby-sitter must be reliable, trustworthy and responsible; always alert.

2.—Sitters must follow all written and oral instructions completely and faithfully.

3.—The sitters must have a knowledge of fire behavior and its dangers (to safeguard your children by immediately getting them out of the house safely).

4.—Sitters must know how to administer simple first-aid and recognize childhood sicknesses, and be able to determine serious illness from minor ones.

5.—The sitters should have had training and/or experience in the bathing and feeding of children.

6.—Some of the basic qualifications of a good baby-sitter are:

(a) A sitter must like children and set a good example for them.

(b) A sitter must have a well-developed sense of responsibility and follow written and oral instructions implicitly.

(c) A sitter must be fire and safety conscious and be capable of keeping his head in an emergency.

7.—Baby-sitters must prepare themselves for responsibility they assume while baby-sitting. Never for a moment forget that the lives and safety of the children left in your care depends upon you.

(a) A sitter should be as familiar as possible with the surroundings of any assignment, arriving early enough to completely familiarize yourself with the following:

1.—A list of all emergency numbers that may be needed, being sure that written instructions include all feeding instructions, emergency telephone numbers, etc.

2.—How to operate furnace and location of furnace cut-off switch.

3.—How to operate any appliances that may be needed.

4.—Location of telephones, and if there is no phone, the best means of obtaining assistance in case of emergency.

5.—Location of emergency first-aid supplies, flashlight, etc.

8. — Things a baby-sitter should never do:

(a) NEVER LEAVE CHILDREN UNATTENDED.

(b) Don't be so intent with your personal pleasures that you neglect the children in your care

(c) Do not close doors to children's rooms (so that when the children settle for the night you may readily observe their actions).

(d) A baby-sitter should not sleep on the job.

Summary Baby-Sitter Duties

As baby-sitter, you assume the responsibility of the parents when you accept an assignment. The baby-sitter is doctor, fireman and policeman all rolled into one, and must have had prior training of some sort to assume these positions. It is the responsibility of the sitter to see that he or she gets proper training from a reputable organization that offers such training.

LAW IN ACTION

JUDICIAL NOTES

During a trial the court may take "judicial notice" of certain facts that need not then be proved:

Facts of common knowledge; certain practices peculiar to the community. Certain temperatures or new moons on a given date. Certain freeways are congested; facts of science, history, and geography or World War II shortage of cars, houses, and certain foods.

In the case of one law, the U. S. Supreme court noted that for 80 years a certain law had only three prosecutions under it. Since it was almost never enforced, it was unlikely that anybody would be prosecuted under it. Every state has old laws to set moral standards, and most of them are ignored. Yet no court is likely to say these laws are invalid until someone tries to enforce them.

A judge has much freedom as to facts he may notice judicially. He may do so by accepting certain well known facts as true, or he may call in experts to help him get at the facts for judicial recognition.

Higher courts may review the facts that the trial court takes judicial notice of, and say whether or not it was wrong in not requiring proof.

The courts favor judicial notice as a way to save time, for it eliminates the need to present evidence to prove a fact, but generally, the court will give the opposing side an opportunity to disprove the fact if it wishes to do so.

The View From ..Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

In his "Charge of the Light Brigade," Sir Alfred Tennyson propounded that "their's was not to reason why . . ." Someone did endeavor to reason why, however, a number of years later.

The someone was Cecil Woodham-Smith, who gave both background and answer in his work entitled "The Reason Why."

While we do not pretend to emulate Woodham-Smith, let it be known that this is by way of prelude to commenting on the question "Why?" in a neighboring column.

We wonder about the source of such figures representing 90 per cent of youth as responsible persons, and 10 per cent of youth as delinquents or pre-delinquents.

Let us speak of figures. The estimated population of Daly City is 48,400. This educated approximation is from the City Finance Office.

Of this number, between 16,853 and 18,188 are under the age of 18 years. This educated approximation is from the Bureau of Census, and from the primary, high school, and parochial school district officials.

Last year, this department investigated 5,676 cases. Of this number, 386 cases involved juveniles. Juveniles figured in 6½ per cent of the cases.

Of the total number of cases mentioned, the police investigated 1,288 major crimes. Of these, 108 cases involved juveniles. This amounts to 8.2 per cent of the major crimes.

Sixty-seven of the major crimes were perpetrated by local juveniles, who were apprehended. Forty-one major crimes were perpetrated by non-local juveniles, who were apprehended.

These figures are from Daly City police records. They are true records. They are, as the Federal Bureau of Investigation terms them, "Crimes known to the police."

Obviously, the police cannot report on crimes that are not known to them. The police can know of, and investigate, crimes by virtue of uncovering the offenses, and/or by having the offenses reported by citizens.

It is the duty of any citizen possessing knowledge of a crime to report same to the police. We can only assume that most citizens do this. We, therefore, are obliged to conclude that no interested citizen has more figures than we do, unless that citizen is withholding information.

The recent murder at Thornton Beach occurred in San Mateo county, not in Daly City. Most of those present possessed out-of-town addresses.

We do not feel the community to be at fault with respect to these people. Everyone involved officially has done his job. If it is felt that the laws are at fault, then let us change the laws.

Of the 386 cases involving juveniles, mentioned above, it should be remembered that a number involve recidivism. Cases involving these repeated anti-social acts are common.

Our point here is that delinquency, generally speaking, is very much family generated. Problems do exist. The very reason in being for a police force is the acknowledgement that there will be problems. With young, restless people making up a large proportion of the total community population, it stands to reason that their experimental antics will consume much of our attention. This is not a problem which is out of proportion or out of control.

The impact of the figures mentioned above is even further lessened when recidivistic acts are considered.

For example, there follows a random sampling of such acts. These are samples and are not necessarily all included in the 386 cases mentioned above.

1—A girl—four police contacts in five month period.

2—Three brothers and sisters — 24 police contacts in a period of one year.

3—Boy — ten police contacts within one year.

4—Boy — six police contacts within one year. An outside resident. Brother had previously been a delinquent.

5—Boy — six police contacts within a year.

6—Brother and sister — eight police contacts within a year.

7—Brother and sister — 15 police contacts within a year.

8—Boy—six police contacts within a year. Brother was previously a police problem.

9—Brother and sister — ten police contacts within a year.

10—Brother and sister — 11 police contacts within a year.

11—Boy—eight police contacts within a year.

As shown, there were 108 police contacts made involving a total of 18 juveniles. Most of these were of families with long police backgrounds. It certainly would be gross misrepresentation to attribute 108 police contacts as 108 juveniles being in trouble.

One attempt is underway to consider the area as an entity with respect to the juvenile population. A committee meeting recently held at City Hall launched this consolidated, cooperative effort. This was to be a TEAM EFFORT. We do not agree that phone calls to a private number would add to a team effort, but rather would lend to empire building.

Citizens aware of organized gangs in this area should notify the police. We do not know of organized gang activity.

Organized gangs are not to be confused with the sociological gang instinct. People young and old like to belong to a gang of this type, and this may be exemplified in lodges and other fraternal organizations. Neighborhood kids gang together in their play. These are not gangs in police parlance, nor do we feel that they are the gangs about which the citizenry is concerned.

With respect to "Ivy Leaguers," this is a name which was given to neat and clean, stylishly dressed young people when "Ivy League" was first a style name. To call this an organized gang is like naming a portion of the population to a "League of Bald Headed Men," or to a "Gang of Big Nosed People."

That the "Barts" sport a peculiar rainment cannot be denied. Young people wearing black clothing often speak as Barts. To our knowledge there is no Bart organization, as such, in this city. Many people wear black clothing; so do many dance to rock and roll or to the twist. They are not necessarily gang members.

Misbehaving juveniles, as well as misbehaving adults, are a community problem; they are even a supra-community problem — but they are not out of hand. Any offense requires community participation —at the very least to the extent of notifying the police.

Rabbi Herbert Morris Accepts Pulpit Of Congregation Judea

President Hillard Goldstein of Congregation Judea announced to members of the Congregation this week the acceptance of Rabbi Herbert Morris of the Pulpit of the Congregation. Rabbi Morris, now serving the Ventura County Jewish Council, will assume his rabbinical duties with Congregation Judea on August 1, 1962.

Upon assuming Rabbinical leadership, Rabbi Morris says: "In accepting this Pulpit, I join myself to the greater goals and ideals of Congregation Judea. I feel confident that together we can build a Temple dedicated to the spirit of love and devotion; a membership imbued with a deep sense of commitment to Judaism and service to mankind; a truly Jewish group, growing towards that which is good, and that which is holy."

Rabbi Morris and his charming wife, Judith, are the parents of three children; Abram, 5 years, Rayna, 3 years, Tamara, 1 year.

Rabbi Morris was ordained at the Hebrew Union College Jewish Institute of Religion of Cincinnati, Ohio, where he received mis Master's Degree of Hebrew Letters, June 1956.

Rabbi Morris has held the following Rabbinical positions prior to coming to Congregation Judea: While awaiting ordination, he filled the position of Rabbi at Mt. Zion Congregation, St. Paul, Minnesota, during the sabbatical leave of Dr. Gunther Plaut, serving a congregation of 750 families in a fulltime capacity.

He served as a U. S. Navy Chaplain on the Staff of the Commander Naval Forces Far East. He was assistant to Dr. Louis Binstock, Temple Sholom, Chicago, where in addition to other Rabbinical duties, he supervised a staff of 50 teachers

In 1959 he was elected Rabbi of the Ventura County Jewish Council. For the past two years, Rabbi Morris has been the camp Rabbi for the first session of the U.A.H.C. Summer Camp at Saratoga, Calif.

Upon receiving the acceptance of Rabbi Morris of the Pulpit, President Goldstein stated: "On behalf of the Congregation and for itself, the Board of Trustees, I have pledged to Rabbi Morris the full measure of our energies, our capabilities and our dedication to our Temple and to our Faith. In this spirit, let us go forward together."

the winner's circle

By GARRY NIVER

We see Messrs. Frank Howard and Marvin Bass, coaches at arch-rival Clemson and South Carolina, have united in a single voice against West Point's new coach, Paul Dietzel.

It seems that these two sterling examples of fair play were concerned over the recruiting tactics of Dietzel. They accuse him of trying to make cadets out of some fair-haired mountain boys who had already "signed" with Clemson and North Carolina.

So, the report goes, Curtiss Lindler, a fullback, has signed with South Carolina, and Wayne Page, a halfback, has signed with Clemson.

What puzzles us is the word "signed." As far as our knowledge reaches, it is illegal to sign a high school player to a college contract. This type of a move reeks of professionalism and the two coaches would have been better off to keep their mouths shut about the incident.

STEVE MEZZERA
Pleased with season

To make the incident even more ludricous, Howard said, "This thing makes me not to pay taxes. Because this guy's using my money to get my football players.

"I always thought West Point taught young men to have integrity. But you can't expect them to have any when they are started off on the wrong foot like Deitzel's teaching them to do."

Mr. Howard is real concerned about integrity. In order to sustain the wholesome image of the American coach, you must abide by the coaches' rules. That means that when one coach goes out to a high school, or it could even be a junior high or grammar school, and gets a youth to sign a contract, the hands-off attitude must prevail to all other colleges.

Also, from the sound of Coach Howard's statement, college funds are not to be used for education but to sign high school grid stars to contracts.

It makes us wonder if this type of recruiting is prevalent all over the country. It it is, the following incident could very well take place:

A young gridder has really been burning up the intramural league at Colma's K-6 school. An Eastern university gets wind of him and promptly dispatches the best recruiter in the East.

It is a sunny Tuesday morning when the big Cadillac drives into the school yard of Colma school. Out steps Wally Win-em-all, the famed mentor of Unethical U.

Little Daly City Bill is whisked from his class and into the conference room with the coach.

"I got a little deal for you, kid," says the portly mentor.

"We got 42 bags of jelly beans (money is against NCAA and AAU rules, of course), six cases of double bubble gum and eight chocolate bars if you sign this here contract," the coach proposes.

The light-haired, 11-year-old boy, picture of innocence and youthful vibrance, looks up at the fat coach and says: "You're going to have to talk to my agent."

The coach's face flushes and he decides to take the friendly approach to the youth. "I am sure that I can get you a little better deal, being I like you, kid," the coach replies, eyeing his muscular little 9.5 sprint legs.

"In addition to that offer, we will give you six multi-colored yoyo's, a pair of Chubby Checker twist shoes, and six books of green stamps for your old lady," the coach replies. "We will also throw in a ride in Frank Gifford's car and let you shake Jim Brown's hand," he adds hopefully.

"It is all very appealing, but I had better wait until I get a little older," says the wizened youth.

"By the way, if I had signed, what type of an education would have Unethical U offered me?" the boy asks.

"Education?" says the shocked coach.

ON THE SIDELINES . . . Westmoor Coach Rod Losberger calls Bruce Hix, the 1962 PL batting champ and All-League third baseman, the finest sophomore he has ever coached—and he has had some good ones.

Hix, Reitz Make All PL Baseball

By GARRY NIVER

Westmoor's sophomore sensation Dennis Hix heads up the Peninsula Sportswriters Association's 1962 All-Peninsula League baseball team.

Hix, along with South San Francisco's Neil McNevin, Capuchino's Wally Bunker and Mills' Jan Dukes, are the unanimous selections to the final all-star team ever to fly under a PL banner.

The mythical dream team was chosen by the Peninsula Sportswriters Association, in conjunction with the choices of the ten PL coaches, at a PSA meeting in Belmont on the eve of the death of the PL last week. Westmoor coach Rod Losberger, who kept the unofficial statistics for the Peninsula newspapers in the PL this year, was the guest consultant.

Jefferson's hard-hitting centerfielder, Rich Reitz, also made the first team by a near unanimous choice. This is Reitz's second year in a row as an all-league selection.

In an unprecedented action, the writers chose Capuchino's Dan Laclergue and Mills' Bill Herroon as co-Coaches of the Year." Both teams finished the torrid 18 game schedule with identical 16-2 marks to tie for the league championship.

In one of the closest ballotings in years, the sports scribes picked Mills' Jan Dukes as "Player of the Year" by the narrowest of margins over Cap's junior sensation, Wally Bunker. Dukes had a 12-1 pitching record while Bunker had an 11-2. Bunker led in batting with a .463 average while Dukes had a .421 average.

Rounding out the first team all-league selections were Aragon second baseman Pete Lewis, Mills' shortstop Dick South, Mills' outfielder Dennis Joost and Burlingame catcher Dave Belton.

Jefferson's Mike Rovai, a mainstay on coach Steve Mezzera's fast finishing Indians, was named to the second team at second base. Rovai batted only .213, but was considered the best glove man in the league.

The Indians' fine backstop, Al Cacicedo, was named to the honorable mention team. Cacicedo batted .311.

Also named to the second team were South San Francisco's Gary Iacini, Ed Booth and John Morris. Terra Nova's Roland Isnor, who batted .375, was named to the Honorable Mention team also.

The stocky, 5-6 Hix topped the PL batters with a scintillating .471 average. The youthful third baseman was the only sophomore to make the first or second clubs. Losberger describes Hix as "one of the finest hitting players I have ever had."

Reitz paced the Indians to a dramatic and surprising third place tie. The senior outfielder batted clean-up for the Indians and hit the ball at a .426 clip, and he had the most hits in the league with 26. Jeff finished up with a 10-8 record, along with South San Francisco and Hillsdale.

The Warriors' Dombroski, who made it easily last year also, was perhaps the best defensive fielder in the league. The all-around sportster from South S. F., hampered by a back injury most of the season, still managed to hit a respectable .250.

McNevin was the outstanding choice for the first base position. It makes the second year in a row that McNevin, a junior, has made an All-League team. As a sophomore at Serra last year, the hard-hitting junior was named to the all-star team of the strong Catholic Athletic League.

McNevin, a top defensive glove man, is equally adept with a bat. He hit .375 this season.

Last week's finale brought to a close the colorful five-year life of the Peninsula League. The influx of new high schools has necessitated a league break-up, with Jeff, Wesmoor, South City, Terra Nova, El Camino and Oceana pulling out to form the Northern Peninsula League.

Capuchino, San Mateo, Burlingame, Hillsdale, Aragon, Mills and Crestmoor will be a part of the Mid-Peninsula League when the schools open in September.

SJ Man Is Named CSM Cage Coach

Jack Avina, presently a physical education instructor and basketball coach at San Jose high school, will join the College of San Mateo staff next fall as head basketball coach. The 33-year-old Alvina was appointed to the San Mateo post by the board of trustees last week on the recommendation of Superintendent Julio L. Bortolazzo.

Described by Bortolazzo as "a most outstanding teacher of physical education and basketball coach," Avina has been a member of the San Jose high school faculty for the past three years. At San Jose, he did a complete reorganization of the physical education program.

As coach of San Jose's four basketball teams, varsity, B, C and D, he made an outstanding record. In the past three seasons, the four squads have won six of a possible 12 championships. In the 1961-62 season, the varsity team had 18 wins and two losses in league play and 19-4 for the season.

Westlake's Pack 248, National League Division champs defeated San Francisco's Pack 164, American League Division champs, 3--2, in 15 innings to win "Little World Series," in the West of Twin Peaks Cub Pack Softball League

League president, Stu Maher stated that this is the first time in the twenty-two years of the league that a championship game has gone into extra innings.

The National Division champs jumped off to a two run lead in the first inning on a two-run homer by winning pitcher Butch Bonavito. The game was tied up in the second inning when the American Division champs scored two runs.

In the last half of the 15th, pitcher Bonavito and outfielder Greg Magnusson walked, and 2nd baseman Karl Vorsatz hit a single down third base to score fleet-footed Bonavito, and win the game.

Coaches Fred Waterhouse, Al Smith and Rick Waterhouse stated they could not single out any particular stars, as the championship game was a tremendous team effort, and a desire to win by the entire squad, consisting of Frank Frisch, Dick Smith, Karl Vorsatz, Jerry Hansen, Butch Bonavito, Gary St. Clair, Billy Brown, Barry Brown, Rich Karp, Greg Magnusson, Mike Stephenson, Scott Waterhouse and Bob Colwell.

Linhares Wins CC Golf Tourney

Former San Francisco city champ Art Linhares today reigns as the victor of the seventh annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tourney.

Two strokes behind Linhares, and grabbing low net honors in the A flight, was Hank Flack with a four-over 76.

Tourney chairman Pete Markovich fired a six-over 78 to take third place in low gross honors.

Markovich, Bill Bouskos, Lloyd Selmi and Al Belinger all had low nets of 73 in the A flight.

Linhares' superior, Daly City Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, tied for low net honors in the B flight with Frank Sage, Dave Johnstone and Larry Silvestri.

Pete Nofziger took the C flight honors with a net 71½. Chuck Dougherty's net 72 was good enough to grab the low honors in the D flight.

Ed Pryal, an 84 handicapper, fired a 151-84-67 for a net 67, the low net of the day.

Vince Bowman won the hole-in-one contest with a 110-yard shot in to the cup. Vince Murphy carded the highest score of the day, a 157.

Undefeated PAL Constables Top Midget Loop

A fan traveling around the parks this week could see that the Daly City midget teams have reached that point in the season where they cease to be little boys who play at playing baseball and become smooth functioning units.

Ernie Marchant of the PAL Constables, Dave Speith and Don Coffey of OLM, Bob Nolan and Mike Gerety of the PAL Redsox, Vic Yerby and Steve Noffsinger of BYA Relish Bakery, Steve Back and Mark Mannina of BYA Bender Roofing, Russ Kerger and Ron Storbo of BYA Blazers, George Garber, Bud Kubowitz and John O'Dea of the George Harrison Realty, Jack Ward and Bob Hillsendager of Misracks, and Paul McGlain and Greg Sikora of South Sunset have all been outstanding.

Western Division stars are led by Bill Frahm of Parkmerced and Russ Runge, PAL Indians.

PAL CONSTABLES

Mike Symkovick, in his first pitching performance for the PAL Constables, tallied a two-hit shutout against OLPH for a 5-0 victory. Bill Frahm also collected a shutout against the George Harrison Realty nine. Frahm gave up three hits in the 3-0 win. Helping Frahm at the plate were Adams, Stetman and Leny.

Paul McGlain and his South Sunset colleagues dumped the PAL Braves, 16-2. McGlain allowed the Braves only three hits in the process. Levin was the big stick for South Sunset with four hits.

ROOFING SQUEAKER

BYA Bender Roofing squeaked by the PAL Yankees, 4-2. Steve Back allowed the Yankees only one hit. Jerry Garibaldi robbed Back of his no-hitter with a single. Bob Abbot's two-run single was the winning blow. Scott Bimrose was outstanding for the Yankees on defense.

OLM dropped the tough PAL Indians, 6-4, in a see-saw battle that went into extra innings. OLM's John Irvine broke up the tie with a two-run blow after teammate Tom Mitchell saved the game with a one-handed circus catch.

In other action, Misracks chilled the unpredictable BYA Forresters, 16-3. Bob Hillsendager gave up only two hits to the Forresters. Shaffer banged out three hits and scored three times. Steve Gudelj and Roland Frony rapped two hits each. South Sunset's McGlain stopped the BYA Blazers, 6-2, with three hits.

Guy Kubowitz hit a grand slam homerun for George Harrison Realty as his team clobbered the PAL Giants, 14-0. Bob Georgetti also scored via the big blow. George Barber made the hot spot look real easy with his smooth play.

Rickey Cole of the PAL Constables skinned the Holy Angels Lions, 15-1. The Lions could only connect with the ball four times. Gred Martin, Sean Murphy and John Ellis blasted out doubles for the cause.

BYA Relish Bakery got back into the win column at the expense of Parkmerced, 5-4. Vic Yerby and Ron Papes combined to allow the Parkmerced boys only four hits while their team riddled Bill Frahm with ten hits. Paul Salinger's triple followed by Gene Guzman's hit gave the Bakery boys the win.

The PAL Redsox worked over the PAL Yankees, 23-1. Mike Gererty gave the Yankees a single hit while Mike Dodel hit two homers, one a grand slam.

BYA Bender Roofing batsmen pounded out a victory over the PAL Braves, 7-5. Pat Mannina hit two for two. Rick Piercy slammed two doubles, Steve Back collected a double and John Conwell hit his first homer.

MIDGET MARATHON

In a 12-inning midget game, the PAL Constables topped the Parkmerced nine, 6-5. Joe Allen, Don Feretti and Bob Cerelli all hit doubles for PAL while Bill Frahm and Ron Levy hit triples for Parkmerced. Don Feretti made a spectacular diving catch of a fly ball to end the game.

Holy Angel Lions, led by Dave Padilla, met their rival stablemates, the Holy Angel Colts, and came home winner, 6-4. Wayne Walorinta tossed a four-hit win for the BYA Forresters over OLPH. Paul Romer garnered three hits.

Bob Nolan of the Redsox racked up another one as he held BYA Bender Roofing to a single hit. Barry Perrone and Nolan hit three for four while Bill Mitchell hit a grand slam homerun. Himm blasted a long triple for BYA.

The PAL Braves cooled down the BYA Blazers, 17-8. Tom Greenwalt hit a bases-loaded triple, while Gary Piccardo went three for four. Bento slammed to long ball for BYA Blazers with a homer.

BYA Relish Bakery shut out the PAL Giants, 17-0. Ron Papes and Bruce shared the honors for the no-hitter. Hudgens helped out with three for four at the plate.

Perkov, Gudelj Pace Misracks

M & S Builders romped to a 12-2 win over Parkview of San Bruno to take the first round title in the Tri-City Midget League.

The M & S win, coupled with Sun Valley Dairy's 5-2 loss at the hands of Daly City's Misracks Sporting Goods, enabled the Builders to close out the first round with a game and a half bulge over the PAL Detectives, San Bruno Merchants and Misracks.

Second round play commences within the next two weeks. It is at yet undecided as to whether play will continue on Sundays or shift to twilight during the week.

Second round schedules will be set this evening at a meeting of the South San Francisco managers.

Bruce Collins and Bruce Brian once again shared the mound duties for M & S, as well as topping the hitters with a triple and double, respectively. Defensive play highlighted the Builder win as catchers Luke Linich and Brad Brian, third baseman Leroy Davidson, shortstop Larry Bernardini and rightfielder Tony Bottini all were cited by coach Bob Collins for sparkling plays.

Abe Scheffer pitched a three-hitter and struck out ten in Misrack's 5-2 win over Sun Valley. Steve Gudelj blasted a homer to top the Misrack's hitters, but Bob Perkov's two-run single in the first frame to put Misracks out in front, 3-0, was the big blow of the day.

Steve Murphy pitched a fine game for Sun Valley, limiting Misracks to nine hits and fanning seven.

The PAL Sergeants, behind the six-hit pitching of Jerry Martinez, downed the Winston Seals, 10-3. The San Bruno Merchants came from a 7-0 first inning deficit to take an 11-7 win over the PAL Officers to round out the day's activity.

The new ten week series in starting and the Ladies' Swiss Singles time has been changed to Mondays at 1 p. m. now that school has let out for the summer vacation.

Last week Police Chief Roland Petrocchi and Captain Roy Beecher of the Daly City police department gathered at the Westlake Bowl for the initial meeting of the Police Athletic League tournament committee members. Both groups will work together for the PAL tournament, starting Saturday, June 23, and ending Sunday, August 5.

In the Northgate Mixed Fives, Lee Bonetti and Al Benedette were the leaders with 177/574, respectively. While just filling in as a pacer with this league, Ralph Castergren rolled a 244 game on a 617 series.

Last week's leaders in the Gold Coast tournament were as follows:
164 average and under: Ted Braan, 675; above 164, Bill Baioni, 705.

No More Planes At Orange Park

Through regular action of the South San Francisco recreation commission and effective as of last Saturday, June 9, flying model airplanes in Orange Memorial Park is prohibited.

The South San Francisco recreation and park department is attempting to locate an area more suitable for model flying, but to date has not been able to do so.

This action makes it unlawful to fly model planes in any of the city park areas, because of danger to participants.

Roofers Upset PAL To Break Jinx

Bender Roofing's Steve Bach held the PAL Yankees at bay for six innings before Bob Garibaldi poked out a single in the final stanza to deprive Bach of a no-hitter.

The hit was to no avail, however, as the Roofers upended the Yankees, 4-2. The victory broke a two-year jinx the PALers had over the Roofers.

Bach struck out 11 batters and also drove in a run to aid the winning cause.

Bob Abbott swung the big bat for the Roofers as he lashed out a sharp single in the fourth inning to drive in two runs. Joe Brimrose led the Yanks on defense.

ATTRACTS CONVENTIONS AND TRADE SHOWS . . . The Twin Industrial Building at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds, San Mateo, will house an expanded industrial and commercial products show at the 28th annual Fair and Fiesta August 3 to 11. The building, now landscaped and decorated, has received world-wide attention because of its dramatic roof, constructed of 100-foot long precast concrete shells weighing 40 tons each. A continual series of product shows, sales events, conventions, meetings and exhibits keep the building busy all year long, according to William M. Wilson, Fair and Fiesta manager.

15,567 Fallout Shelter Spaces In San Mateo County

A total of 15,567 fallout shelter spaces have been identified for San Mateo county, according to the California disaster office.

San Francisco county has 729,724 designated shelter spaces and Marin county has 3,274. To date, 2,665,504 shelterspaces have been identified in California.

The California disaster office, in releasing the information, said that private architect and engineering firms, working under contracts with the United States corps of engineers and the Navy bureau of yards and docks, have completed their caluculations for Phase I of the two-part program.

Inventory Made

In Phase I the architects and engineers made an inventory of day and night peak populations, and collected shielding data for machine computation of the fallout protection that each building could provide. The bureau of census and the national bureau of standards are assisting the program by doing the machine computations. The results will be released on a bi-weekly basis.

Shelter spaces reported thus far are located in only 3,931 buildings. Many other buildings and special facilities, such as mines, caves and tunnels, also meet minimum federal criteria, and will be included in future progress reports, the disaster office indicated.

To be marked and stocked as a shelter, the building or special facility must have a protection factor of at least 100. This means that a person taking shelter in one of the federally marked shelters would receive at least 100 times less radiation than a person who was outside.

Distinctive Marking

Phase II will include the marking of shelters with a distinctive yellow and black sign, as well as stocking with food, water, medical supplies and radiological meters. It is anticipated that the first signs will be posted in California some time in July.

In addition to the intensive work being done on buildings that would provide a protection factor of 100 or more, information is also being gathered on additional buildings that do not now meet this shelter criteria. Cost estimates are being worked out for increasing the protection and capacity.

The Department of Defense has indicated that many millions of Americans outside the immediate vacinity of a nuclear explosion will survive the attack if they have adequate protection from radio-active fallout.

For Everyone

The survey program, which is scheduled to be completed by Dec. 31, 1962, is part of the national goal to provide fallout protection for every American.

Allan K. Jonas, director of the disaster office, in commenting upon the survey program, said:

"This is a logical first step. First we must know how much shelter is presently available. Then we can build additional shelters which are necessary for protection against modern weapons.

"In an uneasy world we need this insurance for national and individual survival."

Youth Study Meet Set

The Daly City Youth Study Committee will hold an executive board report meeting June 20 at Jefferson Elementary School District Education Center, 101 Lincoln avenue.

Reports were presented on the first step "Action" at the June 5 meeting. The report stressed:

1. Early identification of problems of the child from the time he or she starts to school, on up through all grades. The schools can best detect this anti-social or out group behavior. Suggest counseling of the child and parents with the school authorities. If this does not bring the desired results, the case would be referred to the City Juvenile Officer and the County Probation Officer for follow-up.

2. Communication. Closer communication and cooperation of community agencies and law enforcement. Publicity concerning the present opportunities for youth participation and guidance already provided. Visits and talks, by the police, to chldren at the schools regarding law enforcement in addition to the traffic safety program. Communicate to the parents the necessity of their participation and assistance in present youth groups. All scouting and recreation groups need volunteer adult participation and assistance to prevent these youth groups from dying out. Re-evaluate present recreational programs to include all age groups with emphasis on activities for girls.

3. Investigate the possibility of establishing a County Mental Health Clinic in the Daly City area. Great need for counseling (as stated in No. 1 above) for the emotionally disturbed, family counseling and group therapy.

4. Establish permanent youth committees. A committee of student representatives from the public and private schools, aided by exofficio members (adults) from police departments, recreation department, ministerial association, schools, etc. from Daly City and Colma.

5. Establish a Youth Employment Committee composed of representatives from: Merchants Associations, Home Improvement Associations, Churches, Schools, Chamber of Commerce, Service Clubs. To be headed by Chamber of Commerce. This permanent committee to work together to develop summertime and part-time employment, trade school and/or the opportunity to train for a skill in a career job. Work toward a solution to the problem of the youngsters on the street who are not in school and are not employed. School drop-outs, school suspensions, wards of the courts, etc.

6. Publicity: Request newspapers to print items concerning activities of present youth groups. Notify public and parents of our Curfew Law and how violators are handled. Statements or speeches by prominent, informed men and women on the factors which make for strong family life. Publicize activities offered in our summer recreation program and summer school program and the church summer programs.

7. Law Enforcement: Strict enforcement of Curfew Laws. Re-evaluate Curfew Laws and methods of enforcement. Closer cooperation with schools regarding "gang" activities.

8. Churches: Emphasize to parents their responsibilities toward youth in our community. Encourage continued youth activities and programs that are already provided by the churches.

SF GIANTS PLAN OLD TIMERS GAME AT CANDLESTICK PARK

The first acceptances received by the San Francisco Giants for the "Old Timers" day program at Candlestick Park on Saturday, August 4, would seem to assure a completely representative gathering of Giant and San Francisco baseball "names." The aim, of course, is the finest collection of baseball talent, past and present, ever assembled in San Francisco on one day.

Joe Cronin, native San Franciscan, Hall of Famer and president of the American League, was the first to forward his acceptance, and the next mail and a couple of long distance telephone calls brought favorable responses from John "Chief" Meyers (batterymate of Christy Mathewson), Fred Snodgrass, Earl Averill, San Francisco Seal luminary, who was a 15-year-old star at Cleveland; Willie Kamm and Emil "Irish" Meusel.

Four championship Giant generations are included among the some 150 invitations that were extended to former Giant stars, San Francisco Seal players and native-born San Franciscans who later won major league accolades. Meyers and Snodgrass were members of John McGraw's 1911-13 three-year National League champions, and Meusel was one of the big hitters on the 1921-24 championship teams.

San Francisco has long been an incubator of baseball talent, and the list of San Franciscans who played in the majors, many of them with the Giants, is a veritable Hall of Fame roster. Frank "Lefty" O'Doul, Willie Kamm, Dick Bartell, George Kelly, Johnny Vergez, "Babe" Pinelli, Sammy Bohne, Mark Koenig are only a few among those who have been invited. Joe DiMaggio is presently in Europe, but has been contacted along with brothers Dom and Vince.

Tom Maloney, associated with San Francisco baseball for almost half a century, has been elected chairman for the Old Timers' Day program.

Plans are to present all the "Old Timers" to the Candlestick Park fans in a ceremony before the game of August 4, and then stage an abbreviated game among them. The National League game that afternoon will pair the Giants with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Tickets for the game, and the "Old Timers" program, are available at all the Giant ticket offices. Mail orders should be directed to ticket manager, San Francisco Giants, Candlestick Park, San Francisco.

Jewish War Veterans Elect Vice Commander

The Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America in their 26th annual state convention held in Monterey, June 1-3, elected Hyman P. Manber of San Bruno junior vice commander of the Department of California.

This is the first time in 23 years that a resident of northern California has been elected to one of the top three offices in the organization. Manber served as northern area chief of staff from 1958-62 before his election to junior vice commander.

Mr. Manber is well known for his activity in community affairs and veterans affairs. He also is presently general chairman of the north county extension of the Peninsula Jewish Community Center and a member of its board, and is active in Congregation Ner Tamid in San Francisco.

"WHY?"

By Paris B. Simmons

One of the basic patterns of the juvenile delinquent is a dislike of school, and in most cases a difficulty with ability to read. Since this pinpoints a cause, what might the community do to eliminate this difficulty?

At the first meeting of the Youth Study Committee, the county probation department pointed out this factor to those present. A suggestion was made that perhaps a reading clinic might assist, but the group was advised that such a clinic, because of cost, could not be included in the elementary school budget for the forthcoming year.

More than 50 elementary teachers have been interviewed on this subject and not one of them failed to see, immediately, the advantages such a clinic would have for their classrooms and the students who have very difficult problems with reading. Most emphasized that such a clinic should be directed at the fourth or fifth grade level, so that the child would be able to have successful school experiences as he entered his teens and went on to high school.

Since the cost of such a clinic seems to be of extreme importance, this writer, who has had numerous courses on the college level in the teaching of remedial reading, and who has successfully taught numerous sixth, seventh and eighth grade students to read, states that an efficient reading clinic can be established for the elementary school district at very little, or no additional expense to the school district.

The major item of a clinic, of course, is the staff. There are several very well qualified teachers now serving in the district who could make a success of such a clinic. They would have to have a foundation in such areas of remedial reading as phonics, sight, Dolch, Gates, etc., as well as the desire to teach this type of student

Student teachers are constantly being sent into the district for their internship. A reading clinic would be an excellent experience for these teacher trainees, as well as be of value to the community.

Such training would be a distinct advantage for them as they would then become skilled in the teaching of reading not by a single method, but several which would benefit every child in their future classes. Since the student teacher does not receive a salary, their assistance would cut down on staff salary needs.

The materials and equipment necessary to establish a first-rate reading clinic, as proposed in this article, are available in the Jefferson elementary school district at the present time. There would be little additional that would be needed, for the most valuable reading aids are designed for the individual child, by the teacher, once the problem is found.

Recognizing that dislike of school is one of the basic causes of delinquency, this writer is anxious and willing to work with authorities of the district in setting up such a clinic for the Jefferson elementary school district, and offers full cooperation towards such endeavor.

A child who is unable to read becomes a problem in the classroom and will eventually become a problem to society. This area should not be by-passed any longer!

Woodrow Wilson

In May two students at Woodrow Wilson Elementary School received first-class awards as a result of entering the Children's Poetry Fair sponsored by the California Federation of Chaparral Poets' Convention.

Audrey Perada, in Darlene Moresco's second grade, received an award for the following poem:

"ROSE"

I made a garden,
I planted a rose.
And the more it rains
The better it grows.

The sun comes out
And helps it, too.
So when it blooms
I'll send it to you.

Mike Volpi, in Cecile Camera's third grade, received his award for the following:

"CLOUDS"

It is fun to learn about the clouds in the sky,
Clouds that move swiftly by and by.
Each cloud has a name of its own, of course,
And sometimes it has the shape of a horse.

Summer Reading At Daly City Library

Rush, rush, rush. During the school year, most children's visits to the library are at the peak hour of the day when each is only one of the mob. During the school year the selection of books is often limited to the needs of the curriculum or the need to satisfy a book report requirement.

Relaxed Atmosphere

In the summertime the atmosphere is more relaxed. There is time to browse, to dip into books. There is time to pursue a subject, to read "everything" the library has on treasure-hunting, snakes, or flowers; to learn to cook, make doll clothes, or Japanese paper-folding. There is also time to help individuals broaden the range of their reading interests.

"Summer Reading—1962" is one of the ways the Daly City Public Libraries is taking to encourage children to read during the vacation period. All children who join will be listed on the "Honor Roll of Readers—1962." At the end of the summer they will receive the list of their summer's reading for their personal history.

Story Hours

Beginning at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday every Wednesday for the rest of the summer, there will be a Picture-Book Story-Hour at the Westlake Library, 275 Southgate avenue. These story times are planned for children, ages three through eight, and will last for approximately 30 minutes.

PLANS UNVEILED FOR 1962 SAN MATEO FLORAL FIESTA

FLORAL FIESTA DESIGN IS OKAYED—Eric Clough (left) designer of the 28th annual San Mateo County Fair and Fiesta's lavish floral display scheduled for August 3-11, goes over the layout design for the amateur division's show with North County committee members Mrs. Robert Van Ness of Pacifica and Julian P. Hargrove of Colma, chairman of outdoor gardens. William A. Whipple (right), associate designer, warned Hargrove that professional exhibitors will be moved into amateur garden space if these areas are not reserved by amateur clubs by the June 15 deadline.

Preliminary plans for a new and dramatic flower and garden display for the 28th annual San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, August 3 to 11 were unveiled to the chairmen of the Fiesta's Amateur division at their recent luncheon at the Villa Hotel.

Ed Clough, Burlingame architect and designer of the fair's lavish flower show, displayed layouts of the Hall of Flowers and the amateur division's display rooms, and pointed out a number of changes and improvements.

"The cut flower room will have all outside entrances sealed to eliminate the wind that has plagued this area for years," Clough said, "and the new layout will go a long way toward eliminating dust and poor traffic patterns."

Mrs. A. Cl. Allan of San Mateo, general chairman, introduced the man responsible for much of the new floral design. He is William A. Whipple, Clough's associate.

Whipple explained that the entrance to the Hall of Flowers from the Fiesta Restaurant will be through a specially designed indoor garden centered with a Gazebo. "The focal point of the hall will be a giant ferris wheel completely covered with prize San Mateo County chrysanthemums," he announced.

Both Whipple and Clough stressed the use of added color in settings for this year's flower exhibits and mentioned that two large screens of brightly colored burlap strips will be used as backdrops in the amateur division room.

Clough warned the outdoor garden committee that two new professional exhibitors are anxious to exhibit this year, and will be given amateur garden space unless all 12 garden areas are reserved by amateur clubs before the Friday, June 15, deadline.

"Once the professionals have exhibited in an area, they get first call on that space the next year," Clough said. "If that space is turned over to professionals this year, it is doubtful that it will ever be returned to amateur use."

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

A garden of flower hats as colorful as the gay floral decorations at each table as a capacity crowd attended the last YWCA fashion-luncheon show of the season until fall at Westlake Bowl. Among those attending were Mrs. John Swanson hostessing a large party of friends, Mrs. Jack Kendree at another table with a group of friends and Mrs. Hal Fox at a table with a group of neighbors from St. Francis Heights.

Ohs and Ahs at the beautiful fashions—Mardy Conrad, a show stopper in a sparkling white linen sheath and perky pink polka dot hat, Louise Preto in one of the season's newest fashions, a gaily colored "shift," Ginger Straight in a dramatic hot pink print, Dorothy Orlich in a coral linen with white chalk trim, Lenore Hoffman in a brilliant turquoise silk, Betty Turner chic in yellow capri set, Margaret Papazian, elegant and feminine in pink linen, Bonnie Everett a dream in apricot silk with autumn haze mink stole, and the younger set, Diane Baurbaulis, cute in white jacket and red suit, and little Karen Keenan adorably outfitted in shocking pink check. A lovely tweed suit in beige tones was modeled by charming Mrs. Pet Smith. Mrs. Parkinson, Mr. Morris and Miss Hizer from H. Liebes were busy behind the scenes assisting with hair styles, make-up and accessories.

Also on the program Elaine Wolf extended a welcome to Pat Martinez of Daly City who will take up her new duties in September as YWCA Director.

Barbara Kennan, President of the Y. W. Wives was general chairman for the show.

"Call Vi" is the word around the community whenever a child is in need, a family in want, an organization needs a helping hand. Certainly the "good samaritan" of the community is Vi Murphy who has lived in the local area for fifteen years and is our selection for this week's community leader.

One of the early residents in Broadmoor, Vi remembers when there was only one telephone in a booth on 87th street and residents stood in line to use it.

A registered nurse she has been police matron with the Broadmoor police department since 1954, has been active in the American Legion Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary, PTA's, Holy Angels Guild and served as secretary and director of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association.

She was instrumental in securing two playgrounds for the area, has given monthly polio shots at the school and is now on the board of directors for San Mateo Cancer Society. Associated with John Perry Realty, Vi lives with her husband, Vince (Daly City's postmaster) and two youngsters on Midway Drive.
